YMCA and Teen Towns are Busiest of Local Area United Fund Agencies

One of the busiest of the 20 United Fund Agencies in the local area is the YMCA at 20th street and Edison avenue.

The aggregate attendance at the "Y" last year totaled 124,699.

These included not only small youngsters enrolled in pre-school classes, other youngsters and teenagers, adults in the men, women and family programs, but also the YMCA Senior Citizens.

The YMCA is a United Fund agency because of the many facets of the community it serves, and the need for the operation to assist in the operation and staffing of the programs and the maintenance of the building to keep membership costs and fees in a range where youngsters can participate.

Allocation from the United Fund for the 1967 operation is $73,800. Based on last year's program attendance, this amounts to 29 cents a person.

United Fund Chairman Mitchell B. Milonki in conferring with Vernon C. Tharp, executive director of the "Y," noted that the use of the YMCA by non-member groups included 327 sessions with attendance of 10,187.

The YMCA groups, Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y, Indian Guides and others totaled 189 with 2401 sessions held and attendance of 45,863.

General use of the YMCA, including the lessons, use of gym, pool, health club and lounge, accounted for total attendance of 52,077.

Tharp pointed out that programs are offered at all ages from pre-school through senior citizens, and activities for men and women include special interest groups, clubs, exercise classes, sports, instruction, swimming and recreational activities. Special events number 74 and were attended by 3300 persons.

YMCA swim classes for boys and girls this year had an enrollment of 430 youngsters, all YMCA members, and 517 individual lessons were given each week along with 36 swim periods for the children.

The YMCA's Teen Town not only provides dancing and other recreation, but gives the youths an opportunity to practice responsible citizenship and leadership. Special events in-

SIU Prexy to Attend White House Reception

President and Mrs. Delyte W. Morris of Southern Illinois University will be White House guests Wednesday at a reception honoring King Mahendra and his queen, from Nepal.

SIU has an Agency for International Development (AID) contract for development of a technical training institute in Kathmandu, capital city of Nepal. King Mahendra formally opened the new instruction center June 12.

SIU, which has a nine-member instruction team at the center, headed by John Anderson as chief-of-party, is the only university operating an educational mission in Nepal.

President Morris said that he and Mrs. Morris will delay departure on their schedule inspection tour of university overseas missions to attend the White House affair. They had been scheduled to leave Saturday.

King Mahendra, 47, is a direct descendant of the founder of the Shah dynasty in 1768. He ascended to the throne in 1969 upon the death of his father. The Nepalese ruler visited the United States in 1960, and also has visited in Russia, China, Japan and England.

Refiners Buy Much Of State Corn Crop

More than 200 million bushels of this year's corn crop will be purchased by companies comprising the nation's wet-milling industry, according to Robert C. Liebenow, president of Corn Refiners Association, Inc., of which Union Starch & Refining Co. of Granite City is a member.

If purchases follow the pattern of the past years, corn refiners will be heavy purchasers of corn in Illinois and Iowa, the two leading corn producing states, Liebenow said.

He pointed out that an industry survey of 1966 corn buying revealed that corn refiners purchased 19.1% of all corn sold off the farms where grown in Illinois during 1966. In Iowa, Liebenow added, corn refiners' purchases amounted to 17.7% of farmers' cash corn sales.

Depot Mail Clerk to Retire on Tuesday

A well-known, old-time employee of the Granite City Army Depot will retire Tuesday, not because he wants to but because it is mandatory.

He is Leo Benz, 2821 Cayuga street, a mail clerk, who has been employed at the depot since August 1942. His first duty at the depot was as a postman. He left the depot after four years due to reduction in force and returned three years later, holding positions as packer, processor, spray painter and his present job.

Born in Chicago, Benz moved to St. Louis with his parents while still a youngster. He moved to Granite City in 1934 and has lived here since.

He has received many commendations during his stay at the depot. He has an excellent leave record, has never been late and has never used sick leave. The accomplishment is seldom equaled, never excelled depot officials noted.

Benz says that with eight holidays and normal leave time, a man who takes care of himself doesn't need to be off more than that.

AWARD MARKING the compounding of the 2-millionth prescription at St. Elizabeth Hospital Pharmacy is presented to Sister Mary Benedict, hospital pharmacist, by Philip M. Paul, Associate Hospital Administrator.

EOC Consolidating for Greater Efficiency

Greater efficiency is being sought by the Madison and St. Clair counties Economic Opportunity Commissions through consolidation of advisory boards for several anti-poverty programs into two compact bi-county committees.

The new committees are designed to make administration of the Neighborhood Youth Corps, On-the-Job Training and New Careers programs more streamlined and efficient, Maurice S. Harris, Madison county anti-poverty director, said this week.

Establishment of the two committees—one geared to oversee personnel matters and the other to act as an advisory group for the three Departments of Labor bi-county programs—has been approved by the Madison county commission.

Earlier, the St. Clair county EOC approved the six-man personnel committee and is expected to vote favorably on a 16-member Bi-County Manpower Advisory Committee at its November meeting, Harris said. The two new groups will replace separate committees for each program.

Each county will be represented by eight commission members on the 16-man board while three EOC members from each county will form the personnel committee. The latter would have the responsibility for overseeing all personnel matters dealing with manpower programs.

Advisory Capacity
Harris pointed out that the new 16-man board would serve in an advisory capacity only. It will not make policy as did the old advisory committees, he added.

J. Philip Waring, director of the bi-county New Careers in Public Service program, told Madison county EOC members that 85 St. Clair county residents are now enrolled in the program, with 50 residents from Madison county expected to enter New Careers training within the next few weeks.

The New Careers program, financed by almost $600,000 from the Bureau of Work Programs of the Department of Labor, is designed to train and place disadvantaged persons in jobs, hoping the training and on-the-job experience will help them more toward higher paying, responsible positions at the sub-professional levels.

Among the Madison county agencies participating in the careers program are the Granite City Army Depot, Alton Memorial Hospital and the Collinsville school district. Other government, non-profit and social service agencies are involved in the project from St. Clair county.

In other recent action, Madison county commissioners approved an application for $125,000 in federal funds for operation of a Head Start pre-school program next summer.

Harris said that "in-kind" services to be provided by the EOC would amount to $36,210, making the total budget of $162,185, only slightly higher than the 1967 appropriation of $15,877. The EOC is seeking the additional funds to increase the salaries of 54 part-time teachers aides, he said.

The director added that the Head Start program is expected to serve 900 children, between the ages of four and six, in 27 centers in Madison county.

Eight classes each will be conducted in Granite City and Madison and three in the Venice school district. A total of 54 classes again will be sponsored during the 1968 summer project, Harris explained.

Civil Rights Authority To Speak at SIU-SW

An authority on civil rights, housing and community planning will speak at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at Southern Illinois University—Southwestern campus, where the second of 14 proposed lectures continues under joint sponsorship of the Department of Housing and Urban Development and SIU.

William E. Hill, regional staff member of HUD's Housing Assistance Office at Chicago, will discuss civil rights at tomorrow evening's session in the Lovejoy Library auditorium. His talk is entitled, "The Intent and Function of Federal Legislation in the Overall Realm of Civil Rights."

A specialist in housing and intergroup relations, Hill's presentation will be geared primarily for local government officials who want to know more about federal agencies, especially HUD. The program is open to students and other interested persons.

The guest speaker, a long-time public servant and worldwide traveler and lecturer, holds a master's degree from Columbia University. He is a member of several civil rights groups, including the NAACP and the Urban League. Hill has been cited for outstanding work in housing.

State Official Explains Gun Owner Registration Law

Ross V. Randolph, director of the Department of Public Safety, said today there appears to be considerable confusion in the minds of the public on the new gun owner's registration law adopted by the General Assembly last spring and effective July 1, 1968.

"The new law provides for the owners of guns to register, and does not provide for gun registration at all," the director explained. "Anyone who owns one or more guns, regardless of the type of gun, must be registered and possess a firearm owner's identification card which will be issued by the Department of Public Safety. Every gun owner must be registered by July 1, 1968, the director said.

"In addition," the director said, "a gun of any kind may be transferred, nor any ammunition of any kind may be transferred to any person within the state of Illinois unless the transferee—the person to whom the gun or ammunition is transferred—has a currently valid firearm owner's identification card issued in his name by the department."

Method of Transfer
Director Randolph said that upon the transfer of any firearm to any other person, the owner must keep a record of that transfer for a period of at least ten years, containing the date of the transfer, the description, serial number or other information identifying the firearm if no serial number is available on the firearm; and, if the transfer is completed within the state of Illinois, the transferee's (new owner) Firearm Owner's Identification Card number must also be included in the information retained by the seller.

This particular rule does not apply to the transfer of firearm ammunition to federal marshals;

Members of the armed forces of the U. S. or the National Guard, while they are engaged in operation of their official duties;

Federal officials while they are engaged in the operation of their official duties;

Law enforcement officials while on their official duties; Nonresident hunters during the hunting season who have valid nonresident hunting licenses and while in an area where hunting is permitted (at all other times and in all other places such nonresident persons must have their firearms unloaded and enclosed in a case);

Nonresidents while on a firing or shooting range recognized by the Department of Public Safety (at all other times and places such persons must have their firearms unloaded and enclosed in a case); Nonresidents while at a firearms showing or display recognized by the Department (at all other times these nonresidents must have their firearms unloaded and enclosed in a case);

Nonresidents whose firearms are unloaded and enclosed in a case;

Nonresidents currently licensed or registered to possess a firearm in their own state;

Pertaining to Minors

Unemancipated minors (under the legal age limit) while in custody or control of their parent or legal guardian or other person "in loco parentis" to such minor;

Provided that such parent or legal guardian or other person "in loco parentis" to such minor shall have a currently valid Firearm Owner's Identification Card.

More detailed information on a new firearm owner's registration will be provided as plans are advanced toward actual registration.

"One thing I would like to stress," Director Randolph said, "is that every application for such a registration identification card must be accompanied by a recent photograph of the applicant. It would be convenient for the applicant to obtain a photo similar to those used on pass-ports," the director suggested.

Other detailed information for the application will be provided as soon as the plans are completed for the start of registration, Randolph said.

Teenage Halloween Dance Tomorrow at 'Y'

The affair will be held at the YMCA, with dancing from 7 to 10 p.m. A 50-cent admission charge per person will include free soda furnished by the Jaycee organization and Pepsi-Cola.

The dance originally was scheduled for tonight, a YMCA spokesman said.

Rose Growers Decide

After a tough fight, many rose growers decided Black Spot disease was pretty tough to control. Every cool season is tough for rose growers. Black Spot disease spreads during rains, then causes infected leaves to fall off. A rose bush without leaves doesn't have many flowers, or admirers, either!

By now, some plants show more resistance to the disease than others. Plenty of losers (of the fight) are deciding to destroy the worst plants and buy better ones. The American Rose Society has a guide for buying roses which tells the national rating of all the roses on the market. Their rating doesn't grade for resistance to Black Spot, but any plants with a high rating has vigor and beauty. If you wish a copy of "A Guide for Buying Roses" write for a free copy to American Rose Society, 4048 Roselea Place, Columbus, Ohio 43214.

If you decide you would rather "fight" than "switch," ask your local Cooperative Extension Office for a copy of Home and Garden Bulletin #25, "Roses for the Home," and pledge to dust or spray your roses every week during the rainy season of spring or fall. Tuberosa Begonias. Every fall these attractive flowering plants seem to run out of gas. No more flowers or new leaves.

These plants are very sensitive to short days of fall and winter, and begin to "go to pot" by developing a large bulb. Modest watering and patience will result in a large bulb and finally the ripening of the vegetation. An ideal way to store the bulbs is to store them in the pot of soil. Just stop watering.

Plants grown begonias can be transplanted to pots and brought inside for the ripening period. Gardeners who want their begonias to continue flowering use artificial lights to extend the day. Special lights are often used. This extra lighting seems most useful to extend fall growth or early spring germination of the bulbs.

Tall Cut for Bluegrass

Bluegrass is thriving as cool weather and rains promote maximum growth.

Tall cutting is still #1 turf practice to promote density and spread. The extra leaf surface allows extra food manufacture. All this surplus is developing plenty of new shoots and expansion into nearby bare spots. How tall is a tall cut? Three inches is the optimum. Don't worry about losing the kids or family pet. All you will notice will be more grass, less weeds and maybe the feeling your grass has become a deep carpet.

Home Notes

By Mrs. Catherine R. Mauck, Madison County Home Adviser, Home Economics Extension of University of Illinois

Play It Safe!

For Halloween. Help protect your child from fire danger during Halloween festivities by treating his costume with a flame-resistant solution.

University of Illinois safety specialist O. L. Hogsett explains that although the treated fabric will not be "fireproof," it will not burst into flame.

Hogsett recommends the following recipe developed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture: Dissolve in 1 gallon of lukewarm water, 9 ounces of borax, 4 ounces of boric acid and 1 tablespoon of detergent.

You can either spray the solution on the garment or dip the item into it. Iron with a moderately hot iron when cloth is almost dry, but don't dampen with water.

Since this solution is a temporary fire-retarding agent, you can use it on sheets, pillowcases and other household items being used for costumes. Simply wash the item after it has served its purpose.

The solution can also be sprayed on crepe paper and other paper decorations that you may wish to make flame resistant. So don't limit its use to Halloween.

'Summer' and 'Winter' Squash

The terms summer and winter have nothing to do with the season in which squash is grown.

Summer squashes are the ones to be eaten while immature, when the seeds are soft and the whole fruit is edible. Usually the rind is so tender that no peeling is necessary.

Main varieties of summer squashes include yellow crookneck, yellow straightneck and zucchini.

Winter squashes must be mature when harvested. The shell is hard, the seeds are not edible and the storage period is long. Hubbard, delicious, butternut, banana, acorn and butternut are popular Illinois winter varieties.

Summer squashes need only the briefest cooking and can even be eaten raw. You can pan fry summer squash in butter or margarine for 10 to 15 minutes or deep fry for 8 minutes.

A favorite way to fix winter squash is to bake it in the shell with butter, brown sugar, honey or maple sugar for flavoring. Tender summer squash is rich in vitamin C while yellow-fleshed winter varieties are a good source of vitamin A.

Law will Prohibit Flammable Toys

Effective Jan. 1, 1968, the manufacture sale and, in some instances, the use of or commerce in, flammable fabrics, dolls and toys will be prohibited in Illinois.

The flammable fabrics act, approved by Gov. Otto Kerner on July 24, 1967, specifically prohibits the manufacture in Illinois of such articles as wearing apparel, bedding, dolls and toys of materials so flammable as to be dangerous when worn or used. Importation into Illinois of such fabrics or toys and dolls also is prohibited.

The act establishes standards of flammability for wearing apparel, bedding, doll accessories and for dolls and toys generally. Any manufacturer convicted of violating the act or the rules and regulations now being established by the Department of Public Safety may be fined up to $500 or imprisoned for one year, or both.

Aud, Tough Enemy Defense Bog Down Warriors in 20-0 Setback

Blanked for the fourth consecutive week, the Granite City high school Warriors football team lost to the Tigers at the muddy Edwardsville field Friday night 20-0 in a Southeastern Conference pairing.

Edwardsville (9-1-2) gained sole possession of third place in the conference standings.

Belleville West (3-0) is in first place after upsetting Alton (3-1) by a 27-20 score at the Belleville field Friday. Collinsville and Wood River each 1-1-2 are tied for fourth place after Kaskaskia rolled to earn a 13-13 deadlock Friday. East St. Louis is sixth with a 1-2 record and the Warriors are last with an 0-5 league mark.

Held to 27 Yards
The Warriors gained only 27 yards against the Tigers, and all of that yardage was on the ground. The Tigers moved 207 yards on the ground and 27 yards in the air for a 234 total.

The Warriors completed no passes, attempting eight. Edwardsville tried six passes and was able to complete one.

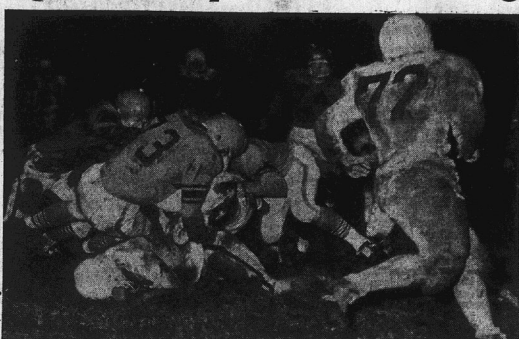

Granite City was forced to punt five times and averaged 23.4 yards a punt. The Tigers punted only once, for 21 yards.

The Warriors were penalized 20 yards and the Tigers 25.

The trend of the contest is shown clearly by the ball control statistics. GCHS was able to pick up two first downs and ran only 15 plays, averaging 1.1 yards a play.

The Tigers earned 13 first downs and had 57 plays, averaging 3.6 yards.

Edwardsville scored in the first, second and third quarters.

J. C. Richardson Photo

MUD-SPATTERED UNIFORMS were very much in evidence Friday night on the Edwardsville high school gridiron as the Warriors dropped a 20-0 Southeastern Conference decision. Halting a Warrior back, believed to be Mike Bradford, are several Tiger players, including Ken Zeisler (73). No. 72 of GCHS is Bob Pates.

ers, with pint-sized Bill Dean, a senior halfback, doing most of the work and scoring twice. He gained 111 yards during the evening.

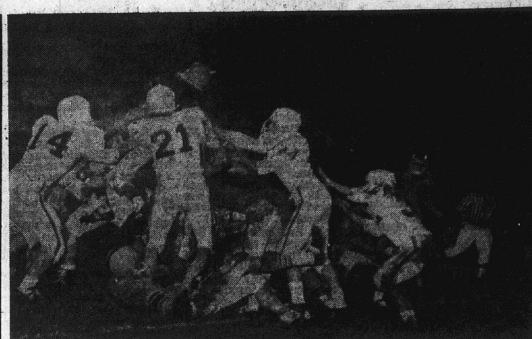

In the first period Dean scored with 51 seconds left from one yard out on an up-the-middle run. The drive had started on the Edwardsville 37, with Dean carrying the ball on ten plays and averaging six yards a carry.

play, senior quarterback Larry Freitag passed to Newton, a senior halfback, for a touchdown. Newton snared the ball on the seven and sprinted over the goal. The extra point kick was wide.

Early in the third period Dean scored his second touchdown on the Edwardsville 37, with Dean carrying the ball on ten plays and averaging six yards a carry.

back due to injuries to other players, carried the ball 10 times for Granite City picking up the most Warrior yards including a ten-yard run near the end of the first half.

Mike Bradford carried five times for 17 yards and Ron Laws ran once for seven yards. Other runners registered minus yardage.

OVER THE TOP of this mass of players was the only route open to Edwardsville's Bill Dean in this play Friday night. Leading ground gainer in the game, Dean was stopped inches from his team's first touchdown by this Granite City goal-line stand, but scored on the next down. Warriors helping halt him (left to right) include Stan Corey, Jerry McMahon, Ron Laws and Dave Anderson.

Granite City opened the contest with an on-side kick in the hope of gaining possession, but the alert Tigers fell on the pigskin on the Warrior 48. This march ran out of momentum on the GC 28.

Falling to earn a first down, the Warriors punted, setting the stage for the first Tiger TD. The scoring drive was aided by a 15-yard penalty against GCHS and a nine-yard gain by Newton on a crucial third down play.

Loss of a fumble after the Warriors received the second half kickoff was followed by the final touchdown.

Edwardsville threatened late in the third quarter and again on the final play of the game, but in both cases a pass fell incomplete.

Warriors 6th In District

The GCHS cross-country team finished a successful year Saturday by placing sixth in the Illinois High School Association district meet held at SIU-SW.

Mike Burris was the highest finisher for GCHS, in 24th place. Richard Hull was 25th, Phil Harris 35th, Gary Oxford 40th, Mike Welser 38th, Tom Niebur 80th and Ricky Rose 110th. A total of 180 boys entered.

Charles Rice of Dupu won the two-mile race in a record time of 16:08.

Belleville West won the meet with 26 points. Next were Edwardsville, 67, Alton 85, Cahokia 138, Jerseyville 168, Granite City 172, Lincoln 187, Mascoutah 220, Wood River 220, Collinsville 314, East St. Louis 315, O'Fallon 321, Belleville East 338, Triad 378, Lebanon 380, Carlinville 432, St. Paul 441, Columbia 481 and Roxana 517.

Coach Richard Harmon is optimistic regarding the 1968 season, when most of the fastest Warrior runners will be back.

GC Sailor 'On Line' Off North Vietnam

Machinist Mate Third Class Harold R. McDonald, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. McDonald of 1322 Clark Avenue, has completed his third "on-the-line" period off the coast of North Vietnam aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Constellation.

The 33-day line period came on the heels of a previous 36-day tour in the Gulf of Tonkin. The Constellation, in port at Subic Bay in the Philippines for only five days, was called upon to replace the fire-damaged USS Forrestal.

Pilots from the carrier's air wing hit the Lang Son Bridge, the major supply link for North Vietnam, and destroyed surface-to-air missile sites at An Phu, seven miles west of Hanoi. Air strikes accounted for the destruction of 115 barges, 67 trucks, three patrol boats and 18 bridges.

Pfc Louis Schwent With Unit in Vietnam

Army Pfc Louis J. Schwent, 20, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack V. Patrick, live at 4140 Division street, is participating in "Operation Pershing" in Vietnam, with seven members of the 1st Air Cavalry Division.

IFWC Hears Talk By SIU-SW Prof

A Southern Illinois University professor, who is an authority on Negro matters, told an audience of women Thursday that if Negro violence continues it is likely to be confined to destruction of property as opposed to acts against white lives.

Elliott M. Rudwick, prolific author, researcher and professor of behavioral sciences at the Southwestern campus, was the initial speaker for Campus Federation Day the new campus. It was sponsored jointly by the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs and SIU-SW.

Rudwick said the nature of the riots this past summer, coupled with conditions now existing in this country, indicate the Negro is wreaking "retaliatory violence" primarily on the property of white men, not their lives.

Rudwick, who is author of a book published on the East St. Louis race riot of 1917, said the so-called "new style" of riot was more symbolic in nature, as compared with earlier conflicts where Negroes attacked to do bodily harm.

Rudwick was the first of three SIU-SW faculty members to discuss the protest movement in America, concentrating on urban riots, the hippie movement and student protest.

Noting that more than 100 riots have occurred since 1964, Rudwick cited frustrations of the ghettos and rising expectations induced by earlier successes in civil rights as the motivation behind the rash of disturbances.

He said retaliatory violence has never been "entirely absent from Negro thinking." He stated it has been spawned in recent years because of the whites' increased sensitivity toward the Negro's plight and migration by Negroes to the large cities. He said Negroes are more prone to disorder now because they are less fearful of mass retaliation by whites.

Other lecturers in the all-day program were Kathryn Skinner, associate professor of education, and George MacC, assistant professor in SIU's Social Sciences Division at the Southwestern campus.

Oceans Can Produce Food To Feed World Population

"The oceans produce enough food annually to supply the entire world population, and with improved techniques and proper management, this harvest of fish could be increased one hundred-fold," Granite City Optimists were told Thursday afternoon.

Richard Becker, a stock broker by profession whose keen interest in oceanography has led him to investigate the field closely, made the statement to Optimist members at their luncheon meeting in the YMCA.

Becker explained that his fascination for the underwater world also permeates him to evaluate future business trends of companies now engaged in diversified projects relating to underwater activities. "A tremendous amount of research into developing resources under the ocean is now going on, with great expansion in this area anticipated," the speaker said. He added the most active projects involve underwater production of food and extraction of minerals and oil.

Pointing out that the U. S. government invested more than $70 million in undersea programs this year, Becker said this figure also represents some funds expended in nuclear submarine and exploratory projects. "By 1969, the federal government will be spending more than $1 billion a year in undersea projects," he predicted.

Many private companies also are investing heavily in undersea research programs, Becker said. One experimental program, involving development of small submarines capable of penetrating great depths, resulted in an undersea craft reaching a maximum depth of 6500 feet, the amateur oceanographer stated.

By the year 2000, the ocean will be the primary source of oil, since deposits currently in use will either be drained or committed, Becker said. He indicated that future problems facing nations interested in extending their undersea exploration probably will involve difficulty in agreeing on and securing title to land under international waters.

"If the same conservation and management principles were adopted in harvesting the sea as utilized in such industries as tree farming, the quantity of fish taken from the ocean could be increased 100 times its present yield," Becker commented.

It will feature training in games, ceremonies, crafts, the Webelos den and pack administration.

Camp fee was set at $26 a scout, payable not later than June 1, 1968. Remittance of $10 before Jan. 1 will hold a chosen camp period and site unknown. March 1, when the true reservation must be confirmed. Troops may take advantage of a fee payment bonus plan, resulting in a $3 saving per scout camper, Col. Hoskin said. The total for each scout, including insurance cost, is $23 if a troop sends $3 a boy for at least 50% of its Jan. 31 troop strength by March 1, and the remaining $18 a scout by June 1.

Quad-Cityans Turn Out for Thrills, Chills at New GC Rink

trict board as Ice Rink Drive. Rink pavilion exterior is shown here, adjoining parking lot. Entrance is to the right of photo. The lot presently has rock surface and will be paved next year.

EARLY PATRONS of Wilson Park ice skating rink as it opened Friday put on their skates in the "Warming Room" immediately adjoining the 85 by 185-foot skating area. Skaters either have their own skates or may rent them at the rink for a 50-cent rental fee for each skating session. Wall lockers, shown in photo, are available for shoes. Room is surfaced with special tile that permits skaters to walk on it wearing skates.

FIRST TICKET to skate at new rink is sold to Charles Grba, 2513 Washington avenue, by Miss Marie Zimmer, cashier. The No. 2 ticket went to Ray Williams, 2545 East 27th street (right) while Trent Nichols, 3014 Madison avenue, who is six, waits to be No. 3. Grba and Williams arrived at the rink more than an hour before the 9 a.m. opening to be first in line.

HE NEEDED HELP from Mom and Dad, but little Kelley Green, five, was the youngest skater on hand at the opening of the new ice rink Friday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Green, 3136 Davis avenue, hang onto son, Kelley as he hits his stride on the first turn around the rink.

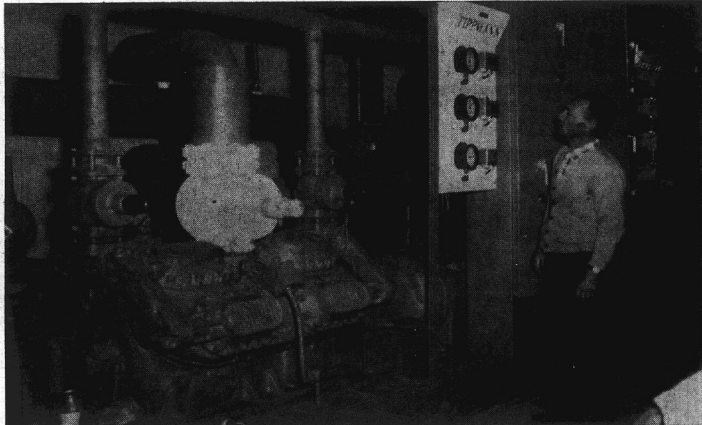

YOUNGSTERS LINE UP to rent skates at the new Wilson Park rink Friday morning, while Waldo Dalton, 3014 Madison avenue, skate rental clerk checks boys for sizes. The park district bought 300 pairs of rental skates, but 97 pairs still were undelivered at the time the rink opened. Skaters may rent skates at a fee of 50 cents for each skating session.

HOT CHOCOLATE and hot dog sandwiches were almost as much of an attraction to the youngsters as skating at Wilson Park's new rink. Youngsters, skate blades flashing, queue up for refreshments at the concession stand in the rink warming room adjoining the skating area. Workmen stayed on the job around the clock Wednesday and Thursday to finish up the warming room for Friday's opening.

GAUGES ON REFRIGERATION units are checked by J. H. "Buck" Kenner, manager of the Granite City park district skating rink, as operations got under way Friday morning. Two 80-ton units provide a total of 160 tons of refrigeration to keep an inch or more of ice on the skating surface of the new rink. Pressure must be kept at right point, or ice could crack from being too cold or melt because it isn't cold enough.

MISS GRANITE CITY, Linda Sabo, showed up to mark the opening of the new Wilson Park rink, so park officials, also on hand for the opening, took occasion to see that Miss Sabo adjusted her skates properly. Seated, left to right, are—Harold Brown, park superintendent; William Kozyak, board member; Miss Sabo, and Barry Loman, president of the board. In back row, left to right—Randall Robertson, board attorney; Frank Rea, board secretary; Paul Schuler, board member; Henry Gabriel, architect for the skating rink, and board members Milton Worthen and Clarence Baumeier.

PARK BOARD MEMBER William Kozyak joins other skaters in initiating new skating rink Friday morning. Kozyak was among first in the skating area, while other board members stood back and watched. Background shows interior expansiveness of skating area measuring 85 by 185 feet, providing 15,000 square feet of skating surface, enough to accommodate 524 skaters at one time.

OOPS! THIS YOUTHFUL patron of ice rink found the ice is as hard and thick as it looks. Difficulty of footing didn't deter him, however. He got to his feet and skated away before the photographer could get his name.

County Public Aid Costs Rise 62% During August

Public aid payments to 8498 Madison county recipients during August jumped to a total of $694,493, or $265,358 more than was paid to only 296 fewer aid clients during July, according to a Report yesterday by Harold O. Swank, director of the Illinois Department of Public Aid at Springfield.

This is an increase of 62% over the total July payments of $429,135, which were made to 8202 recipients of all five major categories of public aid. Practically all of the increase in Madison county was in old age assistance payments which totaled $331,297 for 1421 clients in August, compared to $88,971 paid to 1411 clients during the previous month of July. On the basis of these statistics, payments increased by $242,726, or 306%, while the number of recipients increased by only ten, from 1411 to 1421.

The old age assistance payments for August, Swank said, included a substantial increase in the average expenditure per person to $141 on a state-wide basis during August, compared to an average of $83 per person during July.

Aid to dependent children payments to 5556 recipients in Madison county amounted to $237,946 during August, compared with payment of a total of $237,118 to 5336 recipients during July, while blind pension payments changed only slightly. August blind pensions for 3 Madison county clients amounted to $9696. In July they amounted to $2886 for 34 patrons.

Disability pensions and general assistant payments also changed only slightly in Madison county during August. Disability payments for 685 recipients totaled $80,558, compared to $79,247 paid to 673 patrons in July. General assistance payments to 944 clients amounted to $22,066 in August, and $21,313 for 745 clients in July.

At the state level, blind pension payments remained virtually unchanged while all other programs increased. Expenditures state-wide for August amounted to $31,287,605, compared to $27,981,192 for July and $26,289,453 for August 1966. Old age assistance recipients rose by 873 persons, from 62,639 in July to 63,508 in August. Expenditures in August were $8,987,968 for old age assistance. The July total was $5,239,350.

SIU-SW Professor Donates Pianist Award

A special music award has been established by Ruth Slenczynska for student pianists at Southern Illinois University - Southwestern campus. The donor, an internationally known pianist, is a professor on the music faculty at the university.

The award, amounting to $100 per year, will be called the "Ruth Slenczynska Prize." Presentation will be made annually to the senior piano major whose student record on the SIU-SW campus has been distinguished by superior contributions and accomplishment in the field of chamber music.

The recipient will be determined by the decision of the music faculty. Miss Slenczynska hopes her gift will encourage piano students to play for the enjoyment of sharing with others—pianists have to spend so much time alone practicing, she comments, that she wants the pianist to "think of music as a language in communication with other people and chamber music provides this."

"Too often pianists are so busy improving their techniques for their personal appearances, they neglect the opportunity of meeting and enjoying music with other artists in the music field," Miss Slenczynska said.

A permanent plaque, with spaces to engrave the names of recipients, will be hung in the Communications Building lobby.

RUTH SLENCZYNSKA Establishes Award

The SIU Foundation will set up a funding account specifically for the prize, with the $100 check to be presented to the deserving student at the SIU-SW Spring Awards Day.

In private life, Miss Slenczynska is the wife of James R. Kerr, associate professor of government at SIU-SW.

GCHS Student Driver Finds 'Attitude' is Key to Safe Driving

A showing of common sense and understanding of the basic concept of good driving habits are the thoughts expressed in an highly praised essay written by a Granite City high school sophomore. High acclaim was given by the instructors to the paper written by a student in the school district's driver education program.

Joseph Fedora, chairman of the Granite City high school Driver Education Department, said that he and the youth's instructor, James Morrison, "found the report most interesting and presenting several excellent points."

Fedora noted that sophomore students are required to take a 30-hour classroom course involving tutelage in the rules of the road, safety procedures and driving attitude before entering the actual "behind-the-wheel" phase of instruction. The student's essay, entitled "Attitude" follows:

Passion Since Toddler
"Automobiles have been a constant passion with me since the days when I was a toddler. I believe that I know more about the automobile than any other single subject.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

"I am a fan of serious automotive competition—not dragging on the streets—but refined, sophisticated racing like the Indianapolis 500, which I have attended twice. In short, I am an enthusiast—a car nut.

"I realize, however, that this great love of mine, the automobile, has certain ramifications. If you abuse your car it will punish you. Sometimes, the punishment is death or serious injury, which is certainly too high a cost for pushing your automobile beyond its limits of control.

Now 16—Have License
"For the past few years, I have been looking forward to the day that I might drive an automobile. Now, at age 16, I have my license. All the fun and excitement of driving, that before I had experienced only vicariously, I could now enjoy in reality.

"I have been driving now for three months and I have developed into a reasonably good driver, considering by experience. I have also made many mistakes, many which could have easily ended in tragedy. Why? Because my parents taught me to drive and did only a fair job of it. They aren't qualified driving instructors even though their combined driving experience amounts to nearly 50 years of driving with very few accidents.

1st Taught to "Aim" Car
"The reason my parents weren't more successful as driving instructors is simply they stressed only basic driving skills and failed to stress attitude. They taught me how to "aim" the car without bumping into obstacles around it, but they never once mentioned the two rules which should have been first and foremost—USE COMMON SENSE AND

BE COURTEOUS—this is attitude.

"Driving defensively involves more than simply making sure the other guy doesn't run into you; it also means you must do your best not just to avoid him, but to help him drive safely too!

"That is the problem with our society today, we are much too egotistic and selfish. If people would only be more considerate and charitable when they are driving the accident rate would drop significantly.

Solution to Problem
"In short, I feel the only way this nation will have fewer accidents is when proper driver education in every aspect—both basic skills and development of attitude—become second nature to all licensed drivers. For this, we need government supervision and legislation, yet due to public apathy I doubt if it will ever become a reality.
"The American people appear shocked at the annual carnage on their highways. Yet, how

Hunting Banned At Coffeen Lake

Hunting will not be permitted at the Coffeen Lake Area. It has been noted that several duck blinds have been built on the area which has been leased to the Illinois Department of Conservation.

Director of Conservation, William T. Lodge, stated that terms of the lease prepared by the Central Illinois Public Service Co. specifies that the Department has jurisdiction over the leased land and all the water area and further specifies that all hunting is to be prohibited.

In compliance with terms of the lease, Conservation Officer Blake Lowry has been instructed to tag the illegal blinds and request their removal.

Violation of the no hunting ban will be strictly enforced.

AWNINGS—G. C. GLASS CO. 18th & EDISON, TR 7-5400

Trojans boosted their season record to 6-1 Thursday night as they beat Dupo at the Tigers' field 14-13. The win advanced Madison to third place in the Midwestern Conference standings with a 3-1 league record.

The Trojans topped the Tigers in the important statistic, the score, but the Tigers bested the Trojans in nearly every other aspect of the game.

Madison was able to get only four first downs while giving up 14 to the Trojans. The Trojans rushed for only 129 yards to Dupo's 257. In the air, MHS was held to 16 yards to the Trojans' 34 yards.

The Dupo quarterback, Loren Pankey, completed eight of 19 passes, while Jim Scott of Madison completed two of three. However, the Trojans had four passes intercepted, and the Trojans avoided interceptions.

Madison was forced to punt six times and averaged 29 yards while the Trojans punted three times and averaged only 17 yards a punt.

Dupo lost one fumble, which was recovered by Willie Ackers for the Trojans.

The Trojans lost 120 yards on penalties and the Trojans were penalized only 36 yards. The Trojans repeatedly had clipping and offside violations called against them.

"The best reason I can think of for the closeness of the game MHS was favored by several touchdowns—is that they had 71 plays in the game and our boys had only 51," said Madison head coach Harold Schibul. He described Dupo as a much improved team, its strength catching the Trojans by surprise to some extent.

"We lost to Cahokia last week and it took something out of the boys, but they were sure of a victory against Dupo. They were so sure they almost lost."

"I don't mean to take anything away from the Dupo team, but I think that if our boys hadn't been somewhat overconfident we might have won by a lot more. Even when you 'can't possibly lose,' anything is possible, as we found out."

18-Yd. TD by Scott Madison scored its first touchdown early in the second quarter on a 19-yard run as Jim Scott ran a quarterback keeper to the right side of the line on third down. With a first down on the enemy 28, he had given the ball to Terry Brake for a two-yard pickup and Titus Shipp for a seven-yard gain. He then faked to Shipp and ran the end. Harold James kicked the extra point for a 7-0 lead.

The Trojans scored in the second quarter with 10 seconds remaining on a six-yard run by Paul Weber. A pass from Pan-key to John Montgomery for the extra point knotted the score at halftime.

Madison kicked off to Dupo in the second half, with the run-back reaching the Tiger 45. Two runs brought the ball to midfield and Pankey passed long to Mike Sager, who ran across for the touchdown. The extra point kick was wide.

Interception Turns Tide The Trojans threatened to add to their lead with two minutes clapped in the fourth quarter but quarterback Scott intercepted a pass on the Madison 10-yard-line and returned it 90 yards for the Madison touchdown. James kicked the game-winning extra point.

In the remaining ten minutes, the Trojans frequently broke loose for long yardage but were unable to put them together for a TD drive. With 30 seconds left in the game, Shipp intercepted a Tiger pass on his own eight-yard-line and ran the ball to the Trojan 20 but a clipping penalty moved it back to the five-yard line.

The Trojans then chose to keep the ball on the ground and run out the clock.

Madison is now one full game behind Bethalto and Cahokia, which are tied for first with 4-0 records. They will break the tie Friday when they clash at the Cahokia field.

Roxana and Madison also play Friday, with the winner claiming third place. The Trojans have only two

Berry and Moore Nuptials Saturday in St. Louis

Miss Lynn Suzanne Moore, a daughter of Mrs. Edgar L. Moore sr., 530 Gustave avenue, St. Louis, became the bride of Charles L. Berry of San Diego, Calif., a son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Berry sr., 2100 Richmond avenue, and a former Granite Cityan, at 7 o'clock Saturday evening at Salem United Church of Christ in St. Louis.

The Rev. Adolf P. Fris officiated at the service in a setting of candlelight and white flowers. Arrangements of white chrysanthemums decorated the altar and lighted candles lined the aisle through which the procession passed.

Mrs. Ralph Percival presided at the organ. Escorted by her uncle, James L. Moore, the bride wore a gown of ivory peau de soie fashioned with a scoop neckline and elbow sleeves. Chantilly lace motifs trimmed the sleeves and the bodice and extended into the long A-line skirt. A set-in back train with a full detachable train with more of the lace motifs and a matching mantilla veil was bordered with lace.

The bride carried a cascade of lilies of the valley, stephanotis and orchids.

The attendants were in identical moss green silk velvet gowns. Floor-length, they were styled with bateau necklines. Empire bodices and cuffed elbow sleeves. The relaxed sheath skirts were detailed with fabric roses at the center front waistlines and with tailored bows in the back.

Headpieces were of matching roses and they held cascades of bronze pom poms, yellow Sweetheart roses and ivy.

Miss Helen Horstman was maid of honor, serving with two bridesmaids, Miss Lucille Berry, the bridegroom's sister, and Miss Linda Powell, a cousin of the bride.

Paul L. Berry jr. was his brother's best man, and Theodore J. Berry, another brother, James L. Moore, a cousin of the bride, David Huffstutler and Richard Dupske were groomsmen and ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Moore chose a princess line dress of green with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses, while the bridegroom's mother appeared in a pale pink dress, a lace coat and pink accessories. Her flowers were red roses.

A reception was held at the church after the ceremony and the newly-wedded pair left for a trip to Mexico. They will be at home after Nov. 7 in San Diego.

The former Miss Moore was graduated summa cum laude from St. Louis University School of Nursing and Health Services with a B.S. degree in physical therapy.

Mr. Berry received a B.S. in Commerce at St. Louis University. He is a member of Alpha Kappa Psi fraternity and is employed as a credit manager for Eastman Kodak Stores Inc., San Diego.

'Yule Mail Call' Includes Brother and Sister

Among Quad-City military personnel whose names and addresses appear in today's "Yule Mail Call" list are the son and daughter of a Granite City couple—the former serving with the Army in Germany and the daughter who has been nearly two years with her serviceman-husband on Okinawa—and a Madison soldier who recently received a promotion in Vietnam.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hartzel, 2129 Woodlawn avenue, submitted the names of their son-in-law and daughter, Specialist Fifth Class and Mrs. Robert T. Ellis and granddaughter, Tracy, who are based at Machinato, Okinawa, and their son, Specialist Fourth Class Gary L. Hartzel, a 1965 Granite City high school graduate, currently with the First Transportation Company in Germany.

SP/5 Ellis, his wife, the former Jane Hartzel, and their four-year-old daughter, have been stationed on Okinawa 21 months. They expect to return home next March.

The serviceman, a native of Windsor, Ontario, Canada, formerly served six years in the Royal Canadian Navy before enlisting in U. S. forces. Prior to his overseas assignment, he completed a tour of duty at the Granite City Army Depot.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Vest, 1927 Sken street, Madison, reported that their son, Richard D. Vest, 20, was promoted to Specialist Fourth Class, while on active duty with the First Air Cavalry in Vietnam.

A 1965 graduate of Madison high school, SP/4 Vest was employed at McDonnell-Douglas Aircraft Corp. before entering the Army in November 1966. He has been in Vietnam since May.

The names and addresses of local servicemen and women serving at home or overseas still are being compiled by the Press-Record and will continue to be published in subsequent editions as they are received.

To ensure accuracy, persons wishing to submit the names and addresses should send or bring the serviceman's name, rank, serial number, correct address, including APO and FPO when applicable, to the Press-Record office, 318 S. Dearborn, for inclusion in the Yule Mail Call.

When known, the area of overseas duty will be noted in parenthesis following the address.

Payroll Tax Deadlines For Firms in November

Employers who were liable for payroll taxes in excess of $500 for any month in the preceding calendar quarter are required to make semi-monthly deposits for payroll taxes. They must deposit the second semi-monthly payment for October on or before Nov. 3, Jay G. Philpott, district director of Internal Revenue for central and southern Illinois, noted today.

Employers not required to make semi-monthly deposits for payroll taxes and who have more than $100 in such taxes for October must deposit these funds on or before Nov. 15.

All employers should use Forms 405 in making the deposits in a Federal Reserve Bank or an authorized commercial bank, Philpott said. "Employer's Tax Guide," (Publication No. 15), commonly called Circular E, furnishes detailed information and may be obtained by sending a postcard to the District Director, Internal Revenue Service, Springfield, Ill. 62704.

Sen. Dirksen to Speak At Farm Bureau Meet

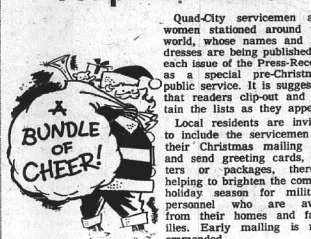

U. S. Sen. Everett Dirksen will be featured speaker at the annual meeting of the Illinois Agricultural Association Nov. 13-16 in Chicago. He will address a general session on the evening of Nov. 15.

The meeting is the culmination of Farm Bureau policy development process which began early in the past summer in Illinois communities. IAA is composed of 99 county Farm Bureaus and, with a membership of 192,843 families, is the largest state Farm Bureau in the nation.

The delegates will adopt Farm Bureau policy for 1968 and will elect officers and directors. The two-year terms of nine board members will expire, including that of Wilbert Engelke of Granite City.

Veterans Benefits in 24th District Up by $600,000

Illinois veterans of the Vietnam era and older in the 24th Congressional district are expected to receive an increase of $599,390 in benefits from the Veterans Administration during the next 12 months, according to announcement by Cong. Melvin Price (D) East St. Louis.

The added payments go to veterans or their widows and children in various benefits provided by the Veterans' Pension and Readjustment Act of 1967 signed recently by President Johnson.

A major provision of the new GI Bill was a cost of living pension increase, Congressman Price said. For an estimated 3870 twenty-fourth district pensioners this will mean about $27,940 in added benefits.

Congressman Price estimated that additional readjustment assistance for approximately 134 eligible veterans will cost about $3,310 with an increase in educational and training benefits for more than 1350 eligible veterans and dependents totaling approximately $350,140 in the first year of operation of the new bill.

Other pension provisions of the new GI Bill, Congressman Price said, include a new "household" rate of $100 per month in lieu of the basic pension rate, for certain veterans under the old pension law.

New monthly allowances of $50 in addition to pensions otherwise payable to widows of veterans of all wars, if they are in need of regular aid attendance, also are included.

The new bill also presumes permanent and total disability of veterans at age 65 and presumes the need of regular aid attendance for pensioners in nursing homes.

The new act also brings under veterans' benefits pensioners those veterans serving in the Armed Forces during the Vietnam era beginning on Aug. 5, 1964, which have previously been authorized for veterans of the Korean conflict.

These benefits include disability compensation at wartime rates, disability pensions for veterans and death pensions for widows and children. Allowance not to exceed $1600 for the purchase of an automobile for disabled veterans, and other educational allowances and benefits.

Auto Wheels Stolen

Mrs. William Miller, 4741 Warnock avenue, reported to the county sheriff's office at 5:25 a.m. Friday that four rims, tires and wheel covers were stolen off her 1964 auto after 9 p.m. Thursday.

Move by Greek Army Avoided Loss Of Life and Enslavement of People

By REV. SPIROS ZODHIATES
President, American
Mission to Greece
(Second of two reports)

With government after government failing to obtain majority support in the Greek parliament, and the spirits of the people inflamed by irresponsible demagoguery of the politicians, the king called for elections and set May 28, 1967, as the date.

But the Center Union insisted that parliament should extend the period of parliamentary immunity after the dissolution of parliament (which is done for the purpose of new elections) so that Andreas Papandreu could not be arrested at a time when he was unprotected.

Special Intelligence Agency then discovered that on the Sunday following April 21, there was going to be a mass demonstration in the city of Thessalonica (the second largest city of Greece) at which the Papandreu were going to speak, and to create a "Chaos."

The Communists were ready with policemen's uniforms to bring about chaos and confusion.

The police informed the Army of their inability to cope with the situation. There was going to be bloodshed.

Furthermore, reliable sources have said that about 100,000 Communist guerrillas were readying themselves in the neighboring communist countries to the north of Greece, to join forces with Communist elements within the land for a possible Communist takeover.

A great many of these Communist guerrillas were Greeks who had been abducted from their homes as little children during the war of 1948 and taken behind the Iron Curtain for thorough Communist brainwashing and military training.

It is such a situation that the Greek Army was facing. They would have to act later, there was no doubt. But why allow the imminent bloodshed to take place first?

Prevention is better than cure. On April 21, before the revolution, the army could start in Thessalonica, the Army took over the land in two and a half hours without any bloodshed.

It was necessary at first to put an end to all political activity and arrest a number of Communist agitators and politicians. Most of these have since been set free, and this is in contrast to what we can expect from other countries, especially Communist ones.

It is generally believed that if the Communists were ever given the opportunity to have the upper hand, there would have been plenty of revolutions in Greece, just as there have been in Cuba and Red China.

The Greek Army, however, did not execute or even mistreat anyone.

Those who are still being held on the island of Yous have been visited by the International Red Cross and a report is available to those who desire it.

Not Brainwashed on Vist

It was my privilege to meet the members of the revolutionary army group and the Prime Minister. They exercised no effort to brainwash me, and gave the information I desired.

I had all the freedom of investigation without being informed by an interpreter, since Greek is my mother tongue. I had the opportunity to hear what the people had to say.

In coffee shops, buses and airplanes I carried on discussion about the situation, even with those who are opposed to the necessity of the military takeover.

I met with groups large and small in the open and in closed areas without being followed, questioned or disturbed. I did not have to seek police clearance.

The coffee shops are full of people—both native and foreign—and it is evident to me that the present government of Greece follows and practices the democratic political principles which have subversive aims.

A national and sound basic philosophy of government must be adopted if emergency and longer range financing are to be brought under control.

The federal government should perform only those essential public services which cannot otherwise be provided, and should otherwise be provided only at greater cost to the country, considering all relevant factors.

Consider Future Consequences

2. The federal government

Other gatherings are free and unhindered.

Armed soldiers are nowhere to be seen throughout the country. And I say everywhere in the revolution circulate freely without armed or police protection, which is more than can be said of many so-called democratic countries.

Freedom, Courtesy, Justice

There is freedom to travel anywhere. The customs hardly even open the suitcase of travelers. Every courtesy is shown to all people, both natives and foreigners. For a native Greek today it is far easier and faster to obtain a passport than ever before.

Any citizen can see any member of the government with comparative ease. There is no more reduced greatly. No more bribery abound, which was the order of previous governments.

Government officials tell you the truth and do not give you the run-around. It is justice, not inflation, that is meted out to all.

Inflation has been checked. The government has no need of spiritual values. Only Communist books have been banned.

American Mission to Greece has one of the largest publishing houses in Greece, the Logos Publishers, with a huge printing establishment in Athens. We operate bookstores and employ copywriters, all with complete freedom of expression.

All religious groups, including the minorities, enjoy as much freedom today as they enjoyed if not more. There are some isolated exceptions, for which individual officials of previous governments, and not the government of today, are to blame.

Greece today is a country where only Communist conspiracy need fear.

Friend of America

She is probably the best friend the United States has, but instead of being praised for the preventive action taken by the army, the army is being her from Communism, she is being greatly maligned. Why is this?

It is my own personal belief that there are times when force is needed to rescue someone who may be on the brink of destruction—self-destruction or otherwise. This is the role the Greek Army played.

I am persuaded that they did so for the power through any great thirst for power itself, which is what motivates the Communist revolution. This was a rescue operation.

They do not intend to enslave the people they rescued. They do not intend to enslave the kind of "liberation" that Communism brings, and they do not approve of that kind of liberation.

No nation which has been taken over by Communism, whether through internal revolution or external capture, has ever been given the privilege of deciding its own political and economic future.

It was in order to safeguard this privilege for the Greek people that the Greek Army acted on April 21.

Do you wish proof of all that I have said? Watch the elections. (The May 28 voting did not take place.)

Upon after the revolution, the Greek government appointed a panel of independent jurists to revise the constitution and uphold the rule of law against the threat of a Communist takeover. This will be voted upon by the people in free elections.

Now, the new military government is suggesting that the new constitution should prohibit military men from running for elected government office. Therefore, the very men who engineered this revolution desire to abstain from ruling the country.

Even now, only three of the cabinet members are military men. All the rest are civilians, most of them high court jurists.

This is the truth about Greece. It is the truth that here can be verified with my first-hand investigation.

You are free to go to Greece to find out for yourself. No one will stand in your way.

CONVENIENCE OF HOMES IN RENEWAL AREA CITED TO Editor:

Hats off to the fine vote that Granite City aldermen gave to the urban renewal land grab.

If this ridiculous plan had been rammed through like three of the aldermen wanted to do, the majority of the home owners and renters affected by it would either have had to go out in some of the new subdivisions and pay from twice to three times as much as they would get for their home, or the same rate as renters pay, or else go out to Horseshoe Lake and start another Hooverville.

I was asked by one advocate of this deal why I was so anxious to keep my present home. I gave him the following reasons:

1. First and foremost, I have a lot of fine neighbors.
2. I am in four minutes' driving time of downtown.
3. I am in two minutes' walking distance to the hospital.
4. Bus service is within one block of my home.
5. I am one block from McKinley school.
6. I am three blocks from the post office.

I don't know of any other location that has these conveniences. I have repeatedly refused to sell my home here, so it stands to reason that the urban renewal could and would not pay the price at which I value my home.

After all, this is supposed to be a free America. From the time of the Pilgrims, a man's home was considered his castle.

Also, I can't buy the idea that any governmental or real estate agency and we would be forced to deal with both in an urban renewal program could practically be forced to set proper prices.

For instance, I have a neighbor who had his house remodeled in the last 12 months; he paid over $8000, and has receipts for it.

An institution wanted this particular piece of property and got a local real estate man to appraise it. He said they set $10,000 on it. I call this a complete giveaway.

I am so glad the majority of the aldermen were on their toes and had a heart for their people, who would have had to pay much higher home prices than they had all the present conveniences.

I can't praise too much for their action in condemning the urban renewal deal.

I think people should attend council meetings and see how their aldermen vote on different issues. The aldermen also need the public's cooperation and suggestions.

The attendance Oct. 18 contributed very much to the defeat of urban renewal.

I thank our staunch aldermen who voted down urban renewal and eviction of us citizens.

RAISE SOCIAL SECURITY TO OVER $100 A MONTH

To the Editor:

I note that the Senate on Oct. 24 approved increasing U. S. aid to Oklahoma from $12 million to $17.5 million a year.

I am writing to let you know that there are many senior citizens here in the Tri-Cities and surrounding areas and throughout the United States who are getting less than $100 per month under the Social Security Act.

If we are giving anything away, let's start here at home and bring these senior citizens up to an amount well over $100.

Also, when a man retires at the age of 65 years or less and was covered under the Social Security Act, his wife at the time of his retirement—regardless of the difference in their ages—should be eligible for 75% of his pension.

If her husband should pass away, then she should be given an amount over $100 under the Social Security Act.

I urge all senior citizens who only have a bare existence under the Social Security Act to write their senators and congressmen and urge them to do something about these conditions as soon as possible.

PROUD OF RESCUE AND OTHER POLICE EFFORTS

To the Editor:

After reading the Oct. 23 issue and noting the commendable job done by two of our local police officers, I feel it's time people expressed their appreciation.

Issuing tickets, making arrests, and upholding our laws must surely be a thankless job for the police. But the saving of a child's life from asphyxiation deserves acknowledgement from every citizen in our community.

I have children myself, and the knowledge that we have men like Officer William Randall to help as a layman or organizer, and officers like Ronald Gryczewski and Theodore Skoldko who are willing to risk their own lives to save a child makes me proud to live in the city of Madison.

New Law Limits Charges for Credit

(Tri-City and Illinois Bar Association)

A new Illinois law limits the amount of finance charges which a seller may add to the price of goods purchased on the installment plan.

The allowable charges vary depending upon the type of goods purchased.

Also, in the case of an automobile, the limits vary in direct proportion to the age of the vehicle—the older the car, the higher the limits.

On a new car, the finance charge limit is $8 per $100 of the loan per year. The rate jumps to $11 per $100 per year on an automobile that is up to two years old; $14 per $100 per year for a car that is from two to four years old; and $16 per $100 per year for any car that is more than four years old.

In the case of a car more than four years old, it is legal to charge over 30% simple annual interest. For example, on a loan price of $1200, to be paid in 12 monthly installments, finance charges would total $192 ($16 per $100), or 32% of the average outstanding loan ($600).

over the 12-month period.

The allowed limits for goods other than automobiles are: $16 per $100 per year on a principal balance of $500 or less; $14 per $100 per year on a principal balance of $500 to $800; and $12 per $100 per year on a principal balance in excess of $800.

The law also has created a new statutory automobile warranty, which provides that, within 30 days of delivery, a purchaser finds there is something wrong with his automobile, and due to abuse or collision, he may require the dealer to pay a certain percentage of the costs for repairs, transmission or wheel repairs.

The amount the dealer may be required to pay depends upon the age of the automobile. It ranges from 50% in the case of an auto not more than two years old to nothing if the car is more than four years old.

However, if the contract for the sale of the vehicle is stamped "AS IS," and the buyer accepts it on that basis, the dealer has no obligation for repairs.

License to Import Chinese Stamps

(U. S. Department of State)

I have some stamps in my collection that seem to be Communist Chinese.

I bought them with some other Chinese stamps, and at the time I did not know they were from Red China or that it was illegal to possess her stamps.

I learned both about two weeks ago when looking in a catalog. I purchased the stamps from an American firm.

R. M.

Dear Mr. M.:

The importation of stamps as well as all other materials from Communist China into the United States is prohibited by the approval in the form of a license issued by the United States. We would assume that you acquired them legally, a license having been issued to the distributor.

I would like to obtain "Foreign Relations of the United States," published by the Historical Office of the Department of State.

Dear Mr. H.:

Enclosed is a copy of "Major Publications of the United States: An Annotated Bibliography" which lists the most recent volumes in the series "Foreign Relations of the United States," together with the price of each.

New Redistricting May Reduce Number Of Wards in Granite City to Seven

Appellate Court reversal of an appealed Circuit Court ruling regarding formation of the Granite City council appears to set the stage for a re-trial concluding with an order to restrict into seven wards rather than the present eight.

This was probably inevitable as soon as the issue became a court matter. A recent special census has borne out that Granite City population is still well below the 50,000 needed to justify an eighth ward.

Granite City already has undergone a much more sweeping redistricting than might be apparent from comparing present and past aldermanic rosters. The same council members generally were re-elected in the 1967 municipal election, but for some of them the new territory in their ward exceeded the size of the old area they retained.

Now, further revamping of ward lines is a virtual certainty, and it will no longer be possible to accommodate all incumbent councilmen. With 16 in office and only seven new wards likely, some will have to contain at least three aldermen's places of residence. Only two were elected in last year's election, but perhaps the residence factor can be eliminated from consideration, with emphasis placed on developing the most equitable and compact districts possible.

Although we felt and still feel that at least one city-wide campaign could have injected greater voter interest into the issue of council redistricting, the ruling by Appellate Judge Goldenherb and Eberspacher eliminates this possibility.

All can agree fully with their stand against boundary changes during the 60 days immediately preceding city elections. Much confusion resulted from the legal uncertainties during the last filing period, with some avowed candidates unable to get in the ballot due to changing law interpretations.

With this in mind, the Circuit Court should act promptly to assure that, whatever the new reapportionment it takes shape well in advance of February 1969.

Nobody enjoys being bothered, but it's still a lot better than being totally ignored.

Frequent Federal Tax Fluctuations Harmful to Economic Stability

(Federal Finance Committee, Council of State Chambers of Commerce)

(Second of three articles)

Long-delayed federal tax reductions, essential to a healthy and growing private enterprise economy, were initiated in the 1960s.

These tax reductions no doubt stimulated economic growth, but tax rates have been coupled with expenditure restraint.

Inflation, indeed, has been accepted by advocates of chronic deficit financing as an indispensable ingredient of economic progress and growth, however false its premises and unproved its effectiveness may be.

Tax increases now will by themselves have little effect on inflation. Federal spending must be restricted substantially if rising prices are to be halted.

Other inflationary measures, such as wage increases in excess of improvements in productivity, must be avoided.

The economic outlook for the next several months is unclear. Things Could Cause Downturn

A tax increase, if sufficiently heavy, could put the brakes on growth from the recent doldrums. The timing of any tax increase must be appropriate if economic harm is not to outweigh fiscal good.

Frequent tax changes, up and down, general and selective, investment, became a tool of counter-cyclical tax policy after the Administration let the inflationary pots boil too long.

Then, in a move of repentance, the credit was restored. Now it is again being regarded by some in the Administration as a tool of counter-cyclical tax policy after the inflationary pots boil too long.

Tax meddling has produced harmful results in the economy.

Merit System Promised for Madison County Sheriff Staff

"We'll have it in effect before I leave office" is an encouraging comment from Sheriff Musso regarding proposed establishment of a merit system for the Madison county sheriff's staff.

Effectiveness of deputies in conducting investigations and preventing crime has fluctuated sharply in past years, partly due to the rapid personnel turnover, stemming from low pay and lack of job security.

Sheriffs cannot serve successive four-year terms, and deputy positions have been regarded as fair game for political patronage. Not until 1965 did Illinois law include permissive provision for civil service commissions to govern hiring, dismissal, discipline and promotion of sheriff staff members.

If a system can be devised in Madison county to extend tenure to capable and energetic deputies regardless of election results, a significant gain can be made in a field that too long has been below par in Illinois—unincorporated area law enforcement.

The Faster You Run, The Faster You Have To

We don't know exactly how much Uncle Sam spent to make the finding, but the Bureau of Labor Statistics has just reached a conclusion that many Quad-City workers have shared for years: "The more money you make, the more it takes to live. Psychologically, a family feels as much pressure as before because it wants more."

Of the 39% rise since 1959 in the cost of a "moderate" standard of living currently listed as $9420 for a city family of four, 15% involves higher prices and 24% represents better food, more autos and other new family needs and desires. Food, housing, clothing, transportation and medical and personal care cost $7329, the remainder being devoted to taxes, life insurance, gifts, contributions and job-related expenses.

With the median income of the nation's 48 million families at $7500 a year, Labor Commissioner A. M. Ross has produced another "classic": The average family would like to earn at least $1920 a year more than it actually receives.

We might not have been able to pinpoint the precise figure, but we'll bet we could have said the same thing without benefit of a survey. As the bureau says, "Aspirations and expectations multiply at least as rapidly" as rising income and productivity—probably ever since the day the first Stone Age family noticed that its new neighbors had a slightly bigger cave.

Pilot's Valor Avoided Additional Deaths

The news from State Park Place one evening last week was tragic and yet heroic: "Residents of a row of frame homes believe veteran pilot Kenneth Cothern of Granite City saved them from disaster."

When prompt operators of doomed aircraft to veer away from populated areas, avoiding loss of life on the ground even at the risk of narrowing the plane occupants' chances of survival, is in the final aviation tradition.

The crash into power lines and trees shortly after takeoff from an airport at 8300 Collinsville road occurred during the dinner hour, and most of the nearby residents were in their homes. The circumstances reflect great credit on Mr. Cothern as well as sadness at his death and that of his passenger.

50 YEARS AGO

OCTOBER 30, 1917

The Tri-City Automobile club, formed to promote good roads, now has 134 members, it was reported at a meeting at the Venice city hall. Chairman George Coudy announced that the next meeting will be at the Moose club.

First project will be to see that Tri-City streets are free from broken glass, old tin cans and other rubbish which litters the traffic lanes and makes the bills mount up.

New wartime postal rates of three cents for letters add other first-class matter will go into effect Nov. 1.

"Those who dance must pay the fiddler" is an old saying. It can truthfully be added that those who give a dance during 1917 or 1918 and expect others to attend should advertise it. What better place can be found than the Coming Events column of the Press-Record?

25 YEARS AGO

OCTOBER 30, 1942

Election day Nov. 3 will be a legal holiday for banks, under an Illinois election law amendment enacted by the General Assembly in 1941.

An epidemic of seven automobile glove compartment thefts, apparently by the same gang, occurred here during the night.

Support the Community and War Chest Fund beginning Nov. 9 in Granite City, Madison, Venice, Nameoki and Mitchell. "It's worth fighting for, it's worth giving for."

Establishment of a civilian army of war workers, all in uniform, by the end of 1943 has been predicted.

A Halloween party at which costumes and masks were worn was given by the Dorcas class of First Baptist Church. A pot luck supper was held, and the prize winner in games was Mrs. Lena Smith. The room was decorated for the event.

Two ingeniously fabricated lifelike dummies were used by boys to play Halloween pranks on 20th street between Park and Quincy streets. The dummies were thrown into the street, causing motorists to stop abruptly.

The dummies were taken to the police station, where officers stuffed a cigar into the mouth of one and labeled it "the captain." The other was given a badge, officer's cap and the label "chief."

$50,000 Suit Filed For Local Youth

A $50,000 malpractice suit was filed Friday in Madison county circuit court, against Dr. F. E. Bilbas and the Ancilla Domini Sisters, doing business at St. Mary's Hospital in East St. Louis, for James Davis, a minor, by Donald A. Williams of Granite City, next friend.

The complaint alleges that last June 18, Davis was hospitalized with abrasions and contusions to the left shoulder suffered in an accident. X-rays were taken of the shoulder under the supervision of Dr. Bilbas, and Dr. Baggot was the physician in charge.

The complaint charges failure to make a proper diagnosis, prescribing improper and insufficient treatment, failure to examine x-rays appropriately, and failure to consult a specialist at an early date, all causing the plaintiff to suffer pain and distress with a permanently disabled shoulder.

In Memoriam

Sacred to the memory of our beloved mother, HILDA LOR-ENTZ:
A precious one from us has gone.
A voice we loved so much is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home
Which never, never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has called,
She is missed so much by all.
We have been so lonely since she went away.
Just one year ago,
November 1, 1906,
Sadly missed by the
LORENTZ FAMILY. 33-10-30
